"SHE LIKE ELECTRIC" -- RECENT HAPPENINGS

The adulation for the young ladies of Smoosh is reaching fever pitch, and you are getting this because we want to keep you up to date on it all:

- They played their record release show, for their debut She Like Electric (Pattern25) at the end of September. Pearl Jam headlined.

- They played New York for the first time - a CMJ showcase at Piano's, and sold it out. The highlight was watching A&R guys hand them business cards as they got off stage. Chloe examined them and then passed them back "You can give these to my dad. I don't need them."

- Smoosh were recently interviewed on NPR's ALL THINGS CONSIDERED, and will also be featured on ALL SONGS CONSIDERED.

- They did their first tour in October - four dates with Rilo Kiley in California. They played on Halloween, and Asya dressed as Spiderman. Smoosh fan Tobey McGuire came back stage after the show to compliment her choice in costume.

- The band recently landed endorsements from Zildjian, Slingerland/Gibson and Jones Soda. They are the youngest people sponsored by each company.

- As of 11/17 Smoosh entered the Top 30 charts for commercial alternative specialty radio at #27. They are already in rotation on LIVE 105 in SF, KNDD in Seattle, KROQ in LA, WXRT in Chicago. They have stayed locked in the TOP 50 on the college charts since the album's release

- Since September, Smoosh has played live on TV four times, on all the major affiliates in Seattle: KOMO (ABC), KING (NBC), KONG (ABC) in Seattle as well as done in-studio interviews and performances on both college and FM stations locally.

- By request, Smoosh has opened for Sleater Kinney, Catpower, Death Cab For Cutie, Rilo Kiley, Pearl Jam - and most recently opened a string of Jimmy Eat World dates.

- Recent press has included rave coverage from TIME OUT NY, VICE, BOSTON GLOBE, WASHINGTON POST, JANE, ENTERTAINMENT WEEKLY, CMJ, THE STRANGER, SEATTLE WEEKLY, BLENDER, MODERN DRUMMER, ALTERNATIVE PRESS, MAGNET, MOJO, PLAN B, NME, TRANSWORLD, ROCKRGRL, VENUS.

- Smoosh will be appearing at SXSW 2005, and will be touring the West Coast with Mates of State in February.
